HIKING HOLIDAYS VIA FRANCIGENA NORTH

Hiking: Via Francigena

Archbishop Siegrich’s pilgrimage

Via Francigena is one of the most popular pilgrimage routes in Europe. This long-distance hike leads along an ancient Roman trade route that was documented by Archbishop Sigerich. Switzerland presents itself idyllic and varied along this pilgrimage route. From Le Day you follow the course of the river Orbe. Afterwards you continue along the idyllic banks of the river La Venoge until you reach the shores of Lake Geneva. On one side the vineyards of Lavaux, on the other the snowy peaks of the Alps and in front of you the vineyards of Chablais. Who says pilgrimage can’t be a pleasure?
