CYCLING HOLIDAYS LA ROUTE VERTE LEISURE ROUTE «LAKES & FORESTS» TO

Cycling: La Route Verte

The nature parks of the Jura Arc

In four days, the "Lakes & Forests" Leisure Route takes you from Couvet to Geneva through various valleys to discover traditional crafts. Your journey starts in the Val-de-Travers, whose famous absinthe is exported to the trendy bars of New York. From there, you spend a night in Ste-Croix where the museum of music boxes and automatons transports you into a wonderful and special world.

You then arrive in the Vallée de Joux – in the heart of the Jura Vaudois Nature Park – where many watch brands still have their workshops and where resonant spruces are used as raw material for the manufacture of magnificent musical instruments. You spend one more night in the wine region of La Côte before reaching Geneva, the international capital of fine watchmaking.

TOUR CHARACTER

A challenging tour along the chain of hills of the Jura. The tours lead mostly on little used side roads. Only in the urban centres is a little more traffic to be expected. Because of the sometimes challenging climbs, we recommend that you tackle the tour with an electric bike. The "pleasure variants" offer shorter stages and are less strenuous than the original route. The Route Verte mostly follows the signposted routes of Veloland Schweiz. In the cantons of Jura, Neuchâtel and Vaud, orientation is easy; before that, the different routes change several times a day.
