

HIKING HOLIDAYS AROUND ZUGSPITZE WITH CHARME HOTELS

Hiking: Around Zugspitze

With special comfort on the road around the highest mountain in Germany

At 2,962 metres, the Zugspitze is the highest mountain in Germany, is one the most famous mountain destinations in the Alps and can be easily climbed by cable car. On your hiking tour you circle the Zugspitze, get to know the most beautiful views and head for wonderful hiking destinations.

The crossings of the gorges are adventurous and sensational and impress with their water masses and height. Enjoy the romance of the alpine landscape and take your time to enjoy a typical Bavarian 'Brotzeit'. On both sides of the Wetterstein Mountains there are beautiful villages that are particularly suitable for quiet overnight stays. So, let's go to the hiking tour with charm.

ITINERARY

1

Arrival in Garmisch-Partenkirchen

Garmisch-Partenkirchen – Mittenwald/Klais, "Partnach Gorge"

Wild and idyllic the day starts with a walk through Partnach gorge, where the waters of Wetterstein massif meet. Continue via soft hills and alpine pastures to Klais or Mittenwald.

 approx. 5 h  approx. 15 km  640 m  430 m

Mittenwald/Klais – Leutasch, "Leutasch valley"

Precise stone masonry cut the route through the gorge into steep rock walls. Bold wooden footbridges cross up to 40 m above the water. Enjoy the contrasting walk along Leutascher Ache into the valley. Past hamlets and flower meadows with the backdrop of Wetterstein massif you walk into the widening Leutasch valley.
