ITINERARY

DAY
1

Arrival to Metz

You should arrive early, because Metz is worth-seeing! The city offers buildings of Roman times until today and is well-known as bishop's see, University City and centre of contemporary art. Besides numerous places of interest in the old city numerous parks are offering possibilities to relax. The old restored fortification is also a visit worth it.

2

Metz – Perl

Today you spend almost the whole day in France. Enjoy the famous French cuisine and a good „Cafe au lait“. After the boarder you reach Perl, here you can ferry across the river to Schengen (Luxembourg), well-known due to the European agreement which controls the visible trade and passenger traffic. Or you make an excursion to the roman Villa Borg (5 km eastern of Perl). Be astonished about the excavations, the reconstruction of the Herrenhaus and Villenbad, the old roman gardens and enjoy a drink in the roman tavern.

 approx. 35 – 65 km

DAY 3

Perl – Trier

The extended vineyards to the left and right of the river are accompanying you today for the first time. Make a detour to Remich, and enjoy the Mediterranean flair in numerous cafes and bistros along the 3km long Moselle promenade. Spend some time there and visit the old alleyways and the church from 1817. Romans named the city in former times Remacum.

You continue along the right side of the river to Konz. At the meeting of Moselle and Saar you cross the river. From here you reach Trier within a few kilometres, therefore you will have enough time for an extended stroll. Visit the Porta Nigra, the amphitheatre, the emperor hot springs or the beautiful dome.
