

CYCLING HOLIDAYS: NETHERLAND FOR FAMILIES

Beaches & Town all-around Amsterdam.

Holland through and through! Every day you will come across great scenery, but always a bit different: sometimes there are sand dunes and beaches, sometimes historical towns, sometimes endless meadows with ditches and picturesque wind mills. You will set off from the very typical Dutch town, "Haarlem" on your cycle tour adapted to be good for kids too. You will cycle through colourful villages and quiet nature. There is a lot to explore here: you will stay overnight in a real castle and you will take breaks in the Netherland's vibrant capital city – Amsterdam, with its canals, museums and parks. This city is also good for being explored from the water. A journey on a water taxi is great for both young and old and is an exciting experience. Come on this tour experience a wonderful family cycle tour in the colourful and diverse Netherlands.

ITINERARY

DAY
1

Arrival in Haarlem

Arrive in Haarlem. Right from the start of your tour you will dive into the many faces of Holland. Here you can wonderfully walk along the, for Holland, famous canals and admire the neat mansions. It is worth making sure that you see the inspirational De Adriaan windmills. The centre of the tulip bulb region is a wonderful warm-up to get you in the mood for your upcoming cycle tour.

2

Cycle tour to Zandvoort

Today you set off on easy and always flat cycle path along the wonderful Dutch coastline. You can expect lovely sand dunes and lots of beaches. There is plenty of time for swimming and playing: you can keep taking breaks on the beaches. After the amusing cycle tour, you will stay overnight in Haarlem again.

 approx. 20 to 35 km

3

Haarlem – Heemskerk

You will cycle past IJmuiden and its locks, the water entrance to Amsterdam. You will then continue cycling towards Heemskerk. Take a rest and observe the many cargo ships, cruise ships and yachts, which keep coming through here. Your destination for today is Schloss Assumburg dating back to the 13th century. You will feel like a young night or princess.

 approx. 20 to 30 km

Heemskerk - Cycle tour to Castricum aan zee

Fancy some fun in the sea? Then let's head to the coast again. The sea is just around the corner and that means with this slightly shorter stage you can spend most of the day on the beach. The, at times, rather forested, dunes are inviting to go for a walk through and the sea invites you to start dreaming. You will then cycle back through Bakkum on the way to your castle.

 approx. 35 to 45 km

5

Heemskerk - Amsterdam

The Zaanstreek region in full splendour: picturesque windmills surrounded by green fields and fine little colourful houses – all of that is awaiting you today on your diverse cycle stage to Amsterdam. You will cycle along the canals through the quiet and relaxing area “Het Twiske” with its beaches, large play area and wonderful nature. Enjoy the sun whilst having a picnic in the meadow.

 approx. 45 km

6

Amsterdam city sightseeing

An exploratory tour through the Dutch capital city! Amsterdam is very diverse with its architecture, culture and lovely parks. The many museums are on extremely interesting topics for every age. The canals are best off visited by boat and you can get everywhere easily by bike in no time at all. Enjoy the tasty treats in some of the many cafes, bars and restaurants. Would you prefer to cycle? Then we recommend a shorter tour to IJsselmeer and to the fortification island “Pampus”.

 approx. 30 km

7

Amsterdam – Haarlem

You cycle the first kilometres on cycle paths through Amsterdam. As soon as you have left the town and the crowds of people, you can expect quietness again: you are back in the Dutch countryside. Out and about, you can admire the wetland area of Spaarndam and its many species of animals as well as the magnificent nature. In Woerdersluis, there is a stature of Hansje Brinker to admire, the hero of a wonderful book. You will then finally return back to Haarlem.

 approx. 20 to 35 km
