Swiss "Schoggi"-Tour

This bike tour is all about the sweetest temptation that Switzerland has to offer. But while Lindt and Cailler are enjoyed all around the world, there are countless smaller chocolate manufacturers producing at the highest standards. The tour starts off comfortably through the midland of the Aargau and leads you to the shore of the Lake of Lucerne. You continue through Zug and finally the sun will shine on your face all the way along the coast of the Lake of Zurich– as it should be on a bike tour for connoisseurs.

Tour course

1. Day: Individual arrival in Zurich-Regensdorf

2. Day: Zurich-Regensdorf – Aarau, approx. 50 km

You ride through the Limmattal valley, have a swim in Baden and marvel at the gothic glass panes in Königsfelden. On the Aare dam you ride to Aarau with its charming old town, embedded in the Jura landscape.

3. Day: Visit Chocolat Frey | Aarau - Sursee, approx. 30 km

In the morning, you will visit Chocolat Frey. Under expert supervision, you are going to decorate two bars of chocolate. Next you hit the pedals through the level Suhrental. In the afternoon you reach the quaint little town of Sursee at the lake of Sempach.

4. Day: Sursee - Lucerne, approx. 30 km

Along the oxygen-stricken lake of Sempach and along the Reusstal Lucerne. The Lake of Lucerne is a beautiful body of water embedded in a rough mountain backdrop. Once you reach the lake, board the panorama yacht Saphir and take a round trip in the lake bay of Lucerne.

5. Day: Lucerne - Root - Zug, approx. 30 km

The mostly flat stage connects the cities of Lucerne and Zug. An attractive bike trail leads you along the Reuss towards the Zugerland. On your way you make a stop in Root to visit the exciting world of Chocolatier Aeschbach. To finish, you visit the beautiful old town of Zug with its neat lake side promenade.

6. Day: Zug – Zurich Umgebung, approx. 45 km

Today's tour leads through the natural park Sihlwald. A little paradise right at Zurich's doorstep. Stroll along the world famous Bahnhofstrasse before getting on your bike one last time.

7. Day: Departure or extension.

Stage character

A route for people who know how to enjoy themselves. Perfectly marked and signed bike trails lead you through the most beautiful sceneries of central Switzerland. The route is almost continuously paved and often leads on tranquil side roads or designated bike paths. In cities like Zurich or Lucerne one has to be mindful of traffic.
