Round trip Fribourg

Fribourg is a «crazy» region, a topsy-turvy world. Chilly mountains in the south and warm lakes in the north. Furthermore two languages and three different holiday destinations within smallest space. Heidi-feeling and modernity mixes at the foothills of the alps. For example in Gruyères, where a medieval castle complex meets a futuristic museum of the Alien creator H.R. Giger or in Broc, where the Cailler chocolate factory with it's widespreading smell is located. A must-see for every chocolate enthusiast.

Day-by-Day

1. Day: Arrival at Murten

2. Day: Murten – Fribourg, appr. 25 km

From the medieval Murten along the Schifflensee (Lake Schifflenen) and across contemplative, gently waved landscapes, to the gothic houses of Fribourg. The old town of Fribourg in the Üechtland is regarded as one of the most beautiful, medieval architectural testimonials of Europe. Thanks to more than 200 gothic facades from the 15. century it has maintained it's medieval charm until today. Ever since the bilingual city keeps the exchange of cultures alive.

3. Day: Fribourg – Gruyères, appr. 40 km

Lovely is the landscape, man-made the lake: Lac de la Gruyère (Lake Gruyère), land of the «Crème de la Gruyère» (Cream Gruyère) and of the black-white specked cows. On the hill it stands, the castle-town Gruyères with it's busy touristic hustle and bustle.

4. Day: Gruyères – Murten, appr. 60 km

The medieval Romont presents itself on a hill. After Romont the route offers a wide range of impressions and gets in touch as well with the hilly countryside as the three-lakes-land with the historical townlets Avenches and Murten.

5. Day: Cycling golf at Lake Murten & departure, appr. 20 - 40 km

Equipped with bat and golf ballyou make your way to a Golf-Safari around the scenic Lake Murten. You can decide how many holes you want to play at this day. Sporty golfers play the whole round and enjoy the view over the three-lakes-land from the Mont Vully (Mount Vully). Departure is individual.

Character

The round trip through the Fribourgerland stretches from the flat three-lake-land into the alp's foothills of Gruyères. But the waters of the Schifflensee (Lake Schifflenen) and Greizersee (Lake Gruyère) ensure that the cycle stages are mostly flat and easy-going, so you can enjoy the tour without greater effort.
