CYCLING AROUND IJSSELMEER

Cycling: IJsselmeer Roundtrip

Trading towns, dreamlike harbours and the peaceful sea

Once the Dutch separated the frequently wild Zuidersee with a dam from the North Sea. This is how they have created the IJsselmeer. It is a peaceful water and it's beautiful: a paradise for sailors, kite- and windsurfers, which still appears with the charm of the sea. The mostly flat region is not least a paradise for cyclists.

The optional seven or eight-day round trip takes you through national parks with some rare animals and plants, through picturesque fishing villages and cities, which have experienced splendid times as commercial metropolises. Amsterdam is one of your destinations on the longer journey. Here you can see too that special mixture of fascinating culture and the charm of the water that characterizes the landscape around the IJsselmeer. Enjoy best conditions for a fantastic cycling holiday.

ITINERARY

DAY
1

Arrival in Harderwijk

Individual arrival in Harderwijk. Discover the medieval Hanseatic city. A walk through the city leads you almost always past the Church of Our Lady (Onze Lieve Vrouwekerk). It is a basilica with a three-part elevation from the 14th and 15th century.

Harderwijk – Bussum/Naarden/surroundings

Look forward to the Arkemheen-Eemland National Park and the wide, flat landscape with its extraordinary vegetation. Black-tailed godwits strut across the moor. You cycle alongside the banks of the Randmeren to Huizen, the twin village on the Eemmeer with costumes and fishing museum.

Naarden is a beautiful city in the green Gooi region and one of the best-preserved fortress cities in Europe. It was one of the most important defenses of the New Dutch Waterline, which still amazes people today.

 approx. 50 – 55 km  50 m  60 m

3

Bussum/Naarden/surroundings – Volendam/surroundings

On your tour along the IJsselmeer, you will touch the medieval moated castle “Muidenschloss”. Continue on to Amsterdam, enjoy the historic buildings, wonderful museums and cosy atmosphere. After a few more kilometres you reach the typical old Dutch town of Monnickendam, a real water town.

Enjoy the cycle tour along the IJsselmeer to Volendam or Katwoude. You will take your breaks in traditional fishing villages whose past as flourishing trading towns cannot be overlooked. Volendam is famous for its traditional costumes and is considered the home of a particularly delicious smoked eel. Overnight stay in Volendam/the surrounding area.

 approx. 55 km  25 m  25 m

4

Volendam/surroundings – Enkhuizen

In Edam, you will soon discover that the town has more to give than the world-famous cheese. Hoorn is a small shopper's paradise with numerous terrace cafes and restaurants to enjoy and rest. The picturesque town of Enkhuizen attracts thousands of tourists every year.

Some love it because of its many historic buildings and monuments, others because of its harbor and the optimal water sports facilities. Take a city walk to visit the Zuiderzeemuseum with its replicated old Zuiderzee town.

 approx. 45 km  35 m  35 m

5

Enkhuizen – Lemmer

On a ferry (not incl.) you cross the waves of the IJsselmeer before you disembark in Stavoren. Discover the nostalgic charm of the oldest of the eleven Frisian cities in the Netherlands.

You cycle through the gently sloping and wooded Gaasterland with its cliffs to Lemmer or the proximity. The cozy center with its many terraces right on the water, the cafes and the many attractions, such as the old lock represent the zest for life in the town.

 approx. 40 km  55 m  40 m

6

Lemmer – Kampen

You cycle through the national park "De Weerribben". Not only canoeists love this bog area, which is home of rare plants and animals - due to the variety of canals. One of the jewels of the place Blokzijl is the historic harbor area.

It is not surprising that it is a protected heritage. The natural landscape De Wieden borders on the Weerribben. Together they form the largest contiguous flat moor in Western Europe. Zwartsluis (Black Lock) took over the role of the transit port for peat in the 18th century.

Kampen has a tradition for centuries in the fields of trade and shipping and this is still evident today. In this Hanseatic city, you will see more than 500 monuments, including the Sint Nicolaaskerk, the Gothic Huis, the city gates and a replica of the medieval merchant ship 'De Kamper Hanze Kogge'.

 approx. 65 km  55 m  50 m

7

Kampen – Harderwijk | Departure or extension

Cycling alongside the dam to Elburg. The traditional sailing ships, which are originally called “Botte”, were formerly used for fishing. On your journey alongside the Veluwemeer you come back to your starting point: Harderwijk. Here you start your individual return journey or the prolongation.

 approx. 45 – 65 km  25 m  25 m

TOUR CHARACTER

Easy – The path quality is above average. In Holland, there is a two-lane and paved bike path along almost every street.
